

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Alison Simons

Simons Marketing, LLC

617-775-6513

alison@alisonsimons.com

www.kmmcpa.com

King McNamara Moriarty and Baker Corbett & Geary Announce Merger

Norwood, MA (January 16, 2015) – King McNamara Moriarty (KMM) has merged in Baker Corbett and Geary (BCG), effective January 1, 2015. The firm now employs 45 people in its Norwood and Foxboro offices.

The BCG leadership team expresses its commitment to the merger. "Our goal over the past few years was to find a firm that not only shares our core values but would also broaden our depth and breadth of services. KMM exceeded our hopes for a firm we could merge with and continue the tradition we have for excellent service, deep expertise, and an environment our clients and associates want to be a part-of."

The entire BCG team will join KMM and begin operating under the KMM name in their current office. Crossroad Business Services is now affiliated with KMM and will continue operating under the Crossroad name in the current office.

"We are pleased to welcome our new clients and friends to KMM. We truly believe this merger will allow us to serve our clients, our employees and our communities better than ever" says Joseph B. Moriarty, Managing Partner, of KMM.

King McNamara Moriarty (KMM) delivers the accounting, tax, payroll, and consulting services to clients in Greater Boston from its Norwood office. The firm works with privately held companies, non-profits and individuals. Technology is our differentiator. Technology improves the services we deliver, cuts our costs and yours, and speeds our delivery time considerably. At KMM, we are committed to carrying out our services with integrity, excellence, and respect for others.

Transition Advisors, (www.transitionadvisors.com) a leading merger and acquisition consulting firm exclusively serving the national accounting community, assisted in this transaction. You may contact Joseph B. Moriarty (jbmoriarty@kmmcpa.com) at 781.769.6300 for more information.

-###-